

India Overview Document

India is a country located in South Asia. It is the seventh-largest country in the world by land area and one of the most populated countries in the world. The capital city of India is New Delhi.

India is known for its rich history, diverse culture, many languages, festivals, food, and traditions. The official languages of the Government of India are Hindi and English. However, India has many regional languages such as Bengali, Tamil, Telugu, Marathi, Gujarati, Punjabi, Kannada, Malayalam, Odia, and Assamese.

India became independent from British rule on 15 August 1947. Every year, India celebrates Independence Day on 15 August. India also celebrates Republic Day on 26 January because the Constitution of India came into effect on 26 January 1950.

The national flag of India is called the Tiranga. It has three colors: saffron at the top, white in the middle, and green at the bottom. The Ashoka Chakra is present in the center of the white band. It has 24 spokes.

The national animal of India is the Bengal Tiger. The national bird of India is the Indian Peacock. The national flower of India is the Lotus. The national anthem of India is Jana Gana Mana.

India has many famous monuments and tourist places. The Taj Mahal, located in Agra, is one of the most famous monuments in India. It was built by Mughal emperor Shah Jahan in memory of his wife Mumtaz Mahal. Other famous places include the Red Fort in Delhi, Qutub Minar, India Gate, Gateway of India, Jaipur forts, Kerala backwaters, and the beaches of Goa.

India has a federal parliamentary democratic system. The President is the constitutional head of the country. The Prime Minister is the head of the government.

The Parliament of India has two houses: Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha.

India's economy includes agriculture, manufacturing, services, information technology, banking, tourism, and startups. The information technology sector is one of the most important sectors in India. Cities like Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Pune, Chennai, Gurugram, and Noida are major IT hubs.

India is also known for its space program. The Indian Space Research Organisation, also known as ISRO, is responsible for India's space missions. ISRO has launched many successful missions, including Chandrayaan and Mangalyaan. Chandrayaan-3 successfully landed near the south pole region of the Moon in 2023.

Indian food is very diverse. North Indian food includes dishes like dal, roti, paratha, chole, rajma, paneer, and biryani. South Indian food includes dosa, idli, vada, sambar, rasam, and uttapam. Indian spices are famous around the world.

India celebrates many festivals. Diwali is known as the festival of lights. Holi is known as the festival of colors. Eid, Christmas, Gurpurab, Navratri, Durga Puja, Pongal, Onam, Baisakhi, and Raksha Bandhan are also celebrated in different parts of India.

The Himalayas are located in the northern part of India. The Ganga is one of the most important rivers in India. Other major rivers include Yamuna, Brahmaputra, Godavari, Krishna, Narmada, and Kaveri.

India has 28 states and 8 union territories. Some major states are Uttar Pradesh, Maharashtra, Rajasthan, Gujarat, Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, West Bengal, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar, and Kerala.

Summary:

India is a large and diverse country in South Asia. It is known for its history, culture, democracy, festivals, food, monuments, IT industry, and space achievements. New Delhi is the capital of India. India became independent on 15 August 1947 and became a republic on 26 January 1950.